

JOB DESCRIPTION: Student Ambassador
DEPARTMENT: International Student Initiative

UBC Student Ambassador

- We're looking for students to share their experiences and perspectives as current UBC undergraduate students.
- Comprehensive paid training program (~40 hours) in the summer or the fall of 2026.
- Following training, Student Ambassadors are scheduled for one to three campus tours per week depending on demand in addition to biweekly team meetings. Campus tour shifts are approximately three hours and team meetings take place every other Thursday from 6pm to 8pm.
- Hourly wage: $21.17.
- Application deadline: 11:59pm PST on Wednesday, January 7th, 2026.

Job Summary

Under the direction of the On-Campus Recruitment team within the International Student Initiative, and working in conjunction with the Enrolment Services and Student Recruitment and Advising teams, Campus Tour Student Ambassadors work as official representatives of the university and lead prospective students, family members, guidance counsellors, and others who are involved in the university selection process on regularly scheduled tours of the campus. Ambassadors are leaders and role models on campus who introduce student life and represent the university as a positive, inclusive, and dynamic learning and living environment. Campus tours are scheduled six days a week from Monday through Saturday with some additional tours on select Sundays throughout the year. As well, Ambassadors are expected to be involved in ad-hoc tours for individuals and groups (examples include Indigenous community groups, high school visits, domestic/international delegations, etc.). Ambassadors gain valuable professional experience working with students and families from all over the world. The Campus Tour Student Ambassador is a part-time student position.

The International Student Initiative coordinates UBC's international recruitment activities, as well as the Vancouver Campus Tours program which supports international and domestic recruitment efforts. Tours are regularly cited as one of the primary reasons for deciding to attend UBC and the interaction with Student Ambassadors is regularly cited as one of the most favourable components of the tour. Student Ambassadors are an integral component with respect to the overall goals and objectives of both international and domestic recruitment activities.

Work Performed – Basic Duties and Responsibilities

1. Tour Participation: In-Person and Online

- a) Lead effective and informative tours of UBC's Vancouver campus in-person and online (live virtual campus tours). Weave personal experiences with key messaging to showcase and represent undergraduate student opportunities with consideration for time (and group management when on campus).

- b) Greet, register, and connect with participants before the tour (in-person).
- c) Respond to questions from prospective students and their families in a professional and thoughtful manner.
- d) Refer technical, financial, scholarship/awards, admissions related, or other such enquiries to the Recruiters or Advisors connected to the tour.
- e) Work cooperatively and effectively with others in a team.

2. Administration and Related Duties For In-Person Tours

Pre-tour duties

- a) Ensure that materials are available for registration and prepare registration area (place Campus Tours signs in appropriate locations, ensure that there are sufficient publications and resources available for tour participants, provide nametags, and other duties as required).
- b) Set up Presentation Centre for the pre-tour presentation. May lead the pre-tour presentation.
- c) Restock materials, if required.
- d) Assist drop-in tour participants with registration.

Post-tour duties

- a) Check to ensure that there are sufficient materials for the following day's tour. Restock, if required.
- b) Complete other duties as assigned.

3. Other Responsibilities

- a) Attend all training sessions and meetings, unless in direct conflict with a class. Inform supervisors of any conflicts well in advance. Biweekly Student Ambassador team meetings take place in the Winter Session (September-April) every other Thursday evening from 6pm to 8pm.
- b) Stay in regular contact with supervisors by slack, email, or phone.
- c) Participate in on-campus and virtual recruitment activities such as one-day recruitment events, student panels, counsellor visits, online eRecruitment sessions, social media takeovers, etc.
- d) Opportunities to participate in the hiring process for new Student Ambassadors through facilitation of group interviews and participate in the training of new Student Ambassadors through the facilitation of training of the tour route and content.

The level of complexity will vary from task to task. Many tasks will be administrative in nature, while special projects and events will require a broader skillset. The effective provision of tours requires high levels of empathy, tact, interpersonal skills, intercultural communication, and problem-solving. Campus Tour Student Ambassadors receive training, mentorship, and guidance to perform their duties, as they develop their ability to complete tasks independently.

Student Learning Components

Orientation and Training

- We offer a comprehensive training program for new Student Ambassadors, incorporating approximately 40 hours of training. This training includes workshops on topics such as how the program relates to UBC's objectives, public speaking, virtual presentations, intercultural communication, and handling challenging questions, as well as personalized training with seasoned Student Ambassadors to develop and practice the tour.
- We continue to invest in ongoing professional development for all of our Student Ambassadors through approximately 40 hours per year of training meetings, tours of campus buildings and facilities (e.g. MOA, TRIUMF), guest speakers from campus resources, team-building activities, and a formal shadowing and feedback process with a Senior Student Ambassador.

Networking and Mentorship

- Opportunity to work alongside professional staff of the International Student Initiative, Student Recruitment and Advising, and Enrolment Services.
- Opportunity to meet and interact with prospective students, families, and guests from all over the world.
- Opportunity to work with a vibrant, diverse team of UBC students.
- Opportunity to establish lasting relationships with student leaders from a variety of faculties and student groups across UBC.
- Opportunity to learn about, participate, and volunteer in other UBC activities and events.
- Opportunity to serve as a role model to first-year and incoming students.

Support and Evaluation

- Professional and constructive feedback from supervisors provided on a regular basis (e.g. formal shadowing process with Senior Student Ambassadors).
- Friendly support and encouragement from the overall Campus Tours team.
- Continuous learning and growth (e.g. guided goal setting and self-reflection exercises).
- Frequent verbal contact and regular meetings with supervisors are expected.

Workplace Skill and Professional Development

- Exposure to and experience within a professional office environment.
- Experience working with the public and developing interpersonal, communication, public speaking, and presentation skills in-person and online.
- Experience with challenging situations, tough questions, and conflict management.
- Enhanced academic success skills to complement classroom learning (e.g. improved ability to deliver classroom presentations and communicate academic ideas in a thoughtful and eloquent manner while providing articulate and carefully considered responses to difficult questions).

- Enhanced intercultural communication skills and awareness.
- Enhanced leadership and collaboration skills.
- Increased knowledge of campus resources.

Supervision Received

The Campus Tour Student Ambassador reports to a full-time, professional staff member in the International Student Initiative's On-Campus Recruitment team and is mentored, supported, and guided by a Campus Tours Management Team that includes full-time staff and student peer leaders.

The Campus Tour Student Ambassador receives comprehensive and ongoing training while generally working within an expressed set of policies and procedures.

Conditions of Employment

The Campus Tour Student Ambassador is expected to be scheduled for a minimum of one regularly scheduled in-person or live virtual campus tour each week during quieter periods and multiple tours per week during busier periods. Student Ambassadors can work significantly increased hours per week during the summer months. Attendance at evening and weekend meetings, training sessions, and events is a requisite of the position.

The Campus Tour Student Ambassador must be a registered UBC student, and must be enrolled in classes during the Winter Session. Enrolment in classes during the summer term is not required. Due to the time demands of this job, candidates for the position should discuss other work and volunteer involvements with supervisors in advance to develop an adequate plan for completion of assigned tasks.

Term of Appointment

Appointment is for the upcoming academic year, beginning May or September 2026. There is the possibility of continuing in the position for future years based on performance.

Required Availability for Training

Training for the position is offered in a cohort model. New Student Ambassadors must be available to participate fully in one of the following two training options.

Option #1: Summer 2026 Training

The week of Monday, May 4th through Friday, May 8th: hold 9am to 5pm each day.

Additional summer training sessions will take place throughout May and it is anticipated that new Student Ambassadors will begin delivering tours in late May/early June. Ambassadors training in the summer are expected to be available to deliver tours in the summer (with some breaks for vacation, travel, courses, etc.).

Option #2: Fall 2026 Training

Thursday, September 3rd: 5pm-8pm

Thursday, September 17th: 5pm-8pm

Thursday, October 1st: 5pm-8pm

Thursday, October 15th: 5pm-8pm

Thursday, October 29th: 5pm-8pm

Additional fall training sessions will be spread across Term 1 and it is anticipated that new Student Ambassadors will begin delivering tours in November.

We anticipate hiring approximately 23 new Student Ambassadors in this hiring cycle. The final number will be influenced by how many current members of our team are graduating in 2026.

There is increased demand for campus tours during the summer months. In order to meet our operational needs, approximately 15 positions will be reserved for incoming Student Ambassadors who are available and can commit to training and working in the summer. The remaining positions will be open to new Student Ambassadors who are available to train in the summer or in the fall. The final number of spaces that are reserved for new Student Ambassadors training in the summer may be adjusted depending on the summer availability of current Student Ambassadors.

Hourly Wage

The wage for the Student Ambassador position is $21.17 per hour.
